

SUMMERCAMP AT THE RED

Saturday, June 24 through Saturday, July 1

The Red River Gorge is a canyon system on the Red River in east-central Kentucky (east of Lexington). Much of the Gorge is located inside the Daniel Boone National Forest and has been subsequently reserved as the Red River Gorge Geological Area, an area of around 29,000 acres. It has been designated a National Natural Landmark and National Archaeological District, and it is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Summer camp will start leaving the Church on Saturday Morning. Saturday afternoon, a base camp will be established to work on advancement skills and refresh adventure skills through Monday.

On Monday, the crew will spend the day at Torrent Falls Via Ferrata. The Via Ferrata offers a cable protected, climbing adventure divided into 6 sections with 4 levels – easy to expert. After a full day of climbing, the crew will return to the basecamp to prepare for the adventure section of summer camp.

Current plan is for two adventure crews, based on age. The crews will then execute the four-day trip they have planned. The trip can utilize the developed trail system and /or cross country travel. While traveling and at camps, the crews will have plenty of opportunity to practice and hone their bouldering skills in one of the best natural rock climbing areas in the world (called "The Red" by climbers).

On Friday afternoon, the adventure section will come to a close as the crews meet back up at Miguel's. And you ask, "What is Miguel's"? Miguel's is a local pizza place that has become a climber's institution. Camping at Miguel's is restricted to climbers only, which you will have become. After pitching tents and showers, it will be time to order pizzas and swap stories with the other climbers that come from all corners of the globe to climb at The Red.

Saturday morning, July 1, it will be time to head back to Oak Ridge to enjoy the holiday weekend with your family. The cost for this adventure is estimated at only $225.
